

FIRST INFORMATION REPORT (DRAFT)

Case Reference No.	LA-00007
Case Title	Government Official Demanding Bribe for Patta Transfer
Legal Category	Administrative
Subcategory	Public Service Denial
Document Generated	06 July 2026

CASE DESCRIPTION

The complainant Krishnan Nambiar applied for Patta (land ownership certificate) transfer at the Taluk Office, Palakkad on 15th May 2026. The concerned Revenue Inspector Madhusudan Pillai (Employee ID: RI/PKD/045) demanded a bribe of Rs. 15,000 to process the application, which is a completely legal application with all documents in order. The complainant refused to pay and his application has been pending without action for over 45 days. The complainant has an audio recording of the bribe demand on his mobile phone. He has the application acknowledgment receipt.

AI CASE SUMMARY

Case appears to relate to Administrative Complaints based on case description. Further details required from the questionnaire.

APPLICABLE LAWS & PROVISIONS

Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988, Section 7 — Offence Relating to Public Servant being Bribed

A public servant who obtains or accepts gratification other than legal remuneration as motive or reward commits an offence.

Punishment: 3 to 7 years imprisonment with fine

Right to Information Act, 2005, Section 19 — Appeal

If information is not provided within 30 days or is refused, applicant can file first appeal and then second appeal to Central / State Information Commissioner.

Punishment: Rs. 250 per day penalty on PIO up to Rs. 25,000

Constitution of India, Section Article 226 — Writ Jurisdiction of High Court

High Courts can issue writs including Mandamus (to compel public authority), Certiorari (to quash illegal orders), Prohibition, Habeas Corpus, and Quo Warranto.

Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, Section 197 — Prosecution of Judges and Public Servants

Prior government sanction is required before prosecuting a judge or public servant for acts done in discharge of official duty.

Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993, Section 12 — Functions of the Commission

NHRC can inquire into complaints of violations of human rights committed by state or its agents, including police.

EVIDENCE STATUS

Evidence Item	Type	Importance	Status
Written Complaint / Application Made to Authority	documentary	Critical	Pending
Response or Rejection Letter from Authority	documentary	High	Pending
Audio / Video Recording of Bribe Demand	digital	Critical	Pending
Witnesses to Corruption / Misconduct	testimonial	High	Pending
RTI Application and Acknowledgment	official	High	Pending
Official Documents / Orders Challenged	official	High	Pending
Photographs / Videos of Incident	digital	High	Pending
Newspaper Reports (if public record)	documentary	Low	Pending

RECOMMENDED ACTIONS

1. File formal complaint with designated grievance officer of the department
2. Lodge complaint on CPGRAMS (Centralized Public Grievance Redress) portal
3. File RTI application to obtain relevant government documents
4. Approach Lokayukta / Anti-Corruption Bureau with evidence of bribery
5. File complaint with Vigilance Department if public servant involved
6. Approach High Court with Writ of Mandamus if authority is not acting
7. File complaint with National Human Rights Commission for rights violations
8. Approach Election Commission of India for election-related complaints

DISCLAIMER: This document has been generated by an AI-assisted legal tool. It is intended as a guide for legal professionals and government officials. This does not constitute formal legal advice. All recommendations should be reviewed by a qualified legal professional before taking action.